Patrycja Sobera Named a Stand Out 50 Leader in 2025 by the Future of Field Service

Sobera is being recognized by her peers for her outstanding leadership skills and commitment to pushing the boundaries of employee experience innovation

BLUE BELL, Pa., Oct. 7, 2025 – Unisys (NYSE: UIS) today announced that Patrycja Sobera, senior vice president and general manager of Digital Workplace Solutions (DWS), has been named a Stand Out 50 Leader in 2025 by the Future of Field Service. The Stand Out 50 Awards recognize leaders in the field service industry — from the eyes of their industry peers — who demonstrate authentic and exemplary leadership, innovative approaches and a passion for improving the customer experience.

“I am both honored and humbled to be recognized as a Stand Out 50 Leader,” said Sobera. “In today’s dynamic and often unpredictable business landscape, it is our duty as leaders to mentor and empower our people by equipping them with the right tools to work smarter and create a compelling experience where talent can thrive. In doing so, we deliver stronger, more innovative solutions to our clients, and this award is a true testament to our collective commitment from colleagues around the globe to keep delivering.”

Sobera joined Unisys in 2021 and is an award-winning service delivery professional and acknowledged expert in experience level agreement delivery. She leads a global delivery team of more than 6,000 colleagues who provide agile and cross-industry technical support, including developing and implementing client-facing, AI-enabled services available on demand in any language.

In addition to her business-critical work, Sobera is a recognized thought leader with deep influence within the industry. HDI, the leading trade organization for the technical support and service management industry, named her a Top 25 Thought Leader in 2024 and 2025. She also serves as an executive sponsor of the Women+ Associate Impact Group at Unisys and is the Lean In Ambassador for Women in Tech in EMEA.
